

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE ON 18TH DECEMBER 2018

The Cayman Book* is now out
(George Town, Grand Cayman)

The Cayman Book, Cayman's first luxury lifestyle magazine geared towards the discerning traveller is now out.

The glossy 140-page perfect-bound book features stunning photography, informative features, and a clean modern design.

The magazine, the official publication of the Cayman Islands Tourism Association, replaces Visit Cayman magazine. It is the first of three magazine titles published by the recently launched print and digital publisher Pink Duck Publishing.

The Cayman Book is specifically tailored towards Cayman's tourists, especially those from gateway destinations in North America.

The book, which features a breath-taking "pink sunset" cover image by photographer Irene Corti, is currently being distributed to luxury resorts, condos, and private villas, as well as select businesses across all three islands.

"I am absolutely thrilled with The Cayman Book," Kathryn Willman, the magazine's publisher enthused. "The book is the result of months of tireless hard work by my team at Pink Duck Publishing as well as numerous local contributors. I would like to personally thank them for all their hard work in bringing this product to fruition. Sales are already open for issue 2 with numerous prime positions having already been taken."

Key contributors included staff writer Ian Swaby, art director Damon Hardie, brand marketing manager Eleanor Smith, graphic designer Angie Kape, and lead photographer Janet Jarchow. The magazine was overseen by editor-in-chief, Joanna Lewis.

Miss Lewis said: "I am delighted to announce that The Cayman Book is now officially out. Thanks to everyone's hard work we have already received positive feedback from many of our clients. I have no doubt in my mind that The Cayman Book will become Cayman's premier magazine title."

The print title is supported by a dynamic website – www.thecaymanbook.com - set to launch in January 2019. The website has been designed as an easy-to-navigate tool for those looking to enjoy an upscale experience coupled with true Caymanian hospitality.
